

I know that you have many choices when it comes to selecting a tax professional, so I appreciate that you chose me to prepare your tax returns this past tax season. I consider my clients to be friends and an extension of my family. My goal is to earn your trust each and every year.

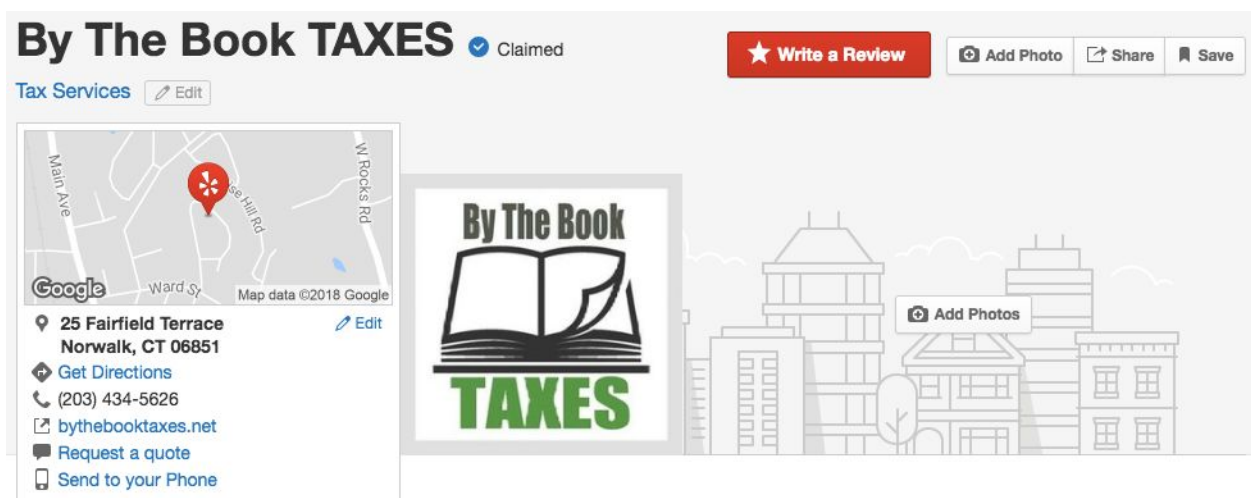

This year I would greatly appreciate it if you would review, recommend and rate me on your favorite social media platform such as Google, Yelp or Facebook. I encourage you to share your experience working with me. It only takes a few minutes, yet it makes such a difference. If you've never written an online review before, here is a quick guide.

Thank you for making By The Book Taxes a success.
